

the bobhawkes

“the bobhawkes” provide a unique, energetic sound that redefines the term ‘acoustic’ and will have audiences dancing and singing along all night!

TED NASH

“the bobhawkes” pride themselves in finding a unique mix of entertaining, lively music that crosses many, varied styles whilst delivering it in a punchy professional package. “the bobhawkes” have put considerable effort into their choice of repertoire, choosing a blend of tried and tested classics, latest hits... plus the songs that make the audience smile and think... “Oh yeah! I remember this song! I used to love it!”

Seamlessly crossing from rock ‘n’ roll to pop and through to blues, country, jazz and even bluegrass, “the bobhawkes” provide an ideal alternative to suit any venue looking for a fresh and energetic act. The beauty of such a versatile act is that the repertoire can be modified to suit any occasion or audience demographic.

“the bobhawkes” are equally suited to Saturday night in the main room, Sunday afternoon in the beer garden and even Tuesday’s “Prawn Morning” at the local RSL.

“the bobhawkes” come along with the professionalism that only years of experience can bring. With their youthful, energetic approach that will bring an audience to life, “the bobhawkes” will leave them with a memorable experience they’ll want to re-live... again and again and again!
